

Story of Father on the father day

Story of Father's Day

Father's Day is a most beautiful and exciting festival that acknowledges and appreciates the important role played by a father in raising the child and consequently building a stronger society. Though fathers' importance in one's life was never denied in any civilizations across the globe ironically what was missing until the last century was the official recognition of the significance of fathers in one's life. Father's Day story is the tale of realization of the need for a Father's Day festival. This story narrates Sonora Louise (founder of Father's Day festival) struggle to officially set a day to honor all fathers. Because of Sonora's efforts Fathers Day is celebrated in a large number of countries around the world.

Father's Day in Old Times

Even thousands of years ago, Father's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm. A study shows that approximately 4000 years ago a Babylonian son (Elmesu) wrote a letter on clay card to his father in which he wished for long and healthy life of his father. Historians also believed that many countries at that time retained the Tradition of Celebrating father's Day.

Father's Day in Modern Society

From last Century Father's Day is being celebrated across the globe with great enthusiasm. There are a lot of people who are being recognized as furthering cause of father day but there is one personality whose name comes first when we talk about father's day, Ms Sonora Louise Smart, a great American daughter, considered as founder of Father's Day Festival.

Inception of the Father's Day took place in Sonora's mind when she heard about Mother's Day festival in 1909. Sonora in very Young age recognized the hardship of his father as he up bring six children alone Sonora's mother died when she was 16 during a childbirth. Sonora's father was a civil war veteran, his name was William Jackson, raised his six kids alone.

When Sonora put the idea of father's day festival before the people most of times she being criticized and people made fun of her but she did not lose hope. Sonora efforts bear fruit when Spokane celebrated its first Father's Day on June 19, 1910 with the support of Spokane Ministerial Association and the local Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA). In order to pay tribute to her Loving father, Sonora wished that father's day should be celebrated on June 5 as this was her father's birthday date but due to lack of preparation and time father's day festival was celebrated on third Sunday in month of June 5.

Sonora idea of celebrating Father's day gained so popularity in short time that US President Woodrow Wilson approved the festival in 1916. In other US Presidents, President Calvin Coolidge though supported the idea but it was President Lyndon Johnson who signed a Presidential Proclamation declaring the third Sunday of June as Father's Day in 1966. Then in 1972, Father's Day started to be held on the third Sunday of June as President Richard Nixon announced it as national festival.
