Houston Vacation: Sportsmen Deal

People often referred to Houston, Texas the slogan "everything is bigger in Texas" because the city is indeed big in every way. The city hosted some of the world's largest sporting events in the world such as boxing and basketball since sports are no exception with Houston because it has professional teams in every sport except the NHL. Wrestle mania, MLB All Star game, US Men's clay court championships, LPGA Championships and the Super bowl two times are some huge sporting events that have happened in Houston. Having the first domed stadium ever seen in the world that is perfect for both indoor and outdoor events, you will notice during your Houston vacation that the sporting facilities here are amazing and are top of the line. If you are one of the millions of people who are keen to sporting events, Houston is the city that you should experience.

Visiting the Orange Shoe Monument during Your Houston Vacation

Houston has its share of exciting attractions ranging from fantastic museums, city parks, space centers, and much more. But if you want to do something different from a more memorable Houston vacation, you can visit the Orange Shoe Monument, which was created by a postman named Jeff McCissack. The monument utilizes castaway materials to pay tribute to his most wanted orange fruit and was saved in 1980 when a group of citizens formed a non-profit organization to buy and maintain it. It is a multi level structure made from just about everything including bricks, tiles and assorted junk. Touring the monument will allow you to encounter handmade signs, statues that are handcrafted, and characters made from junk, which makes it one of a kind structure that will absolutely leave you something to talk about after your exciting tour. If you plan on visiting the monument, you can see it during weekends from the middle of March to the middle of December.

Family Gathering During Houston Getaway

Houston sees thousands of tourists every year, and they either come for business or pleasure. The families are one of those city's frequent visitors because they spend their annual family gatherings in the place as it offers so many activities to do and sights to see. One of the most exciting attraction spots perfect for Houston family vacations are the many museums that are geared towards children such as the Children's Museum of Houston which located in the museum district. This museum is similar to many other museums of its type found around the country that offer parents and their kids hands on and personal learning exhibits, interactive offerings, and a great place to spend quality time together. It is open all throughout the year with very affordable entrance fees that only cost $7 to get in and enjoy all the special facilities and exhibits provided inside the museum.

Experiencing Cinco de Mayo

Cinco de Mayo is being celebrated by various cities in the United States more than others or at least they have different activities going on during this time. There are all kinds of celebrations planned for this fiesta which you will surely enjoy when you are in Houston, Texas during this time. If you are going to time your Houston vacation during this celebration, you can expect plenty of activities and of course a chance to sample some Mexican food recipes and famous Mexican drinks too. Cinco de Mayo is always a big deal in Texas, as it is in California and other states sharing a border with Mexico. Houston is no exception and there will be different relaxing shows, Ballet Folklorico performances, and various other Mexican music performances at the Miller Outdoor Theater in Houston. For both kids and parents, The Children's Museum in Houston also holds weeklong celebration of this holiday and provides plenty of different activities.
